Group Identity

On Saturday and Sunday, November 15 and 16 (11:00-20:00), the 1st Alternative Book Festival of Nicosia will be held at YALLA Collective Space & Café, on the pedestrian street of Perikleous Street in the old town of Nicosia. This is the result of an initiative by collectives and individuals from the book world in Cyprus and Greece, which was formed with the aim of organizing a festival centered around publications (books, magazines, and zines), book presentations, and events that would be difficult to find a place for at other festivals or in bookstore displays. At the heart of our festival will be books and events that promote discussion and attempt to raise socio-political issues without exclusion (based on gender, race, sexual orientation) and censorship practices such as those we have been seeing more and more often in recent years.<sup>1)</sup>
