ERAS (Group)

The Committee for a Radical Left Rally (ERAS) (Επιτροπή για μια Ριζοσπαστική Αριστερή Συσπείρωση) was a socialist group active in Nicosia and Limassol between 2011 and 2014, which split in 2013. With ERAS' split, the groups Leftist Intervention and Granazi were formed. A documentation of the split has been attempted in an online article published on the blog nekatomata.

Committee for a Radical Left Rally (ERAS)
Επιτροπή για μια Ριζοσπαστική Αριστερή Συσπείρωση ΕΡΑΣ
Area:	Nicosia (south), Limassol
Active Period:	2011-2013
Political Position:	Socialism
Website:	Link
Archived Website:	Link

Group Identity

> ERAS was formed from group members of the radical Left and of the movement, who wanted to unite their power in order to create a collective that could offer the critical mass able to intervene with effectiveness in the Cypriot political scene. The members of ERAS participate on the status of individuals.[1)]

Leaflets

- (??/12) No troikan measures, no governmental equivalents. Our social gains are not for negotiation. Organize social resistance.
- (04/12) You can't evict an idea
- (07/13) Public Discussion: Why they are closing down ERT - The Mass Media in the period of neoliberal authoritarianism

Brochures

- (08/12) Social Resistance Plan

Needs Turkish Translation, Groups, Decade 2010-2019, Limassol, Nicosia (south), Nicosia, Socialism

1) Official ERAS Website, User Contributed Translation

From:
https://movementsarchive.org/ - Κυπριακό Κινηματικό Αρχείο
Cyprus Movements Archive
Kıbrıs Sosyal Hareket Arşivi

Permanent link:
https://movementsarchive.org/doku.php?id=en:groups:eras

Last update: 2025/08/20 11:44