

Mediterranean: the remainder is Cyprus (Transcripted Presentation and Discussion)

This translation was created for the purposes of archiving and does not originate from the original creators of the text.

Historical Note

In the summer of 1994, while the war in the former Yugoslavia was going on and Greek nationalism against Macedonia was at its peak, the annual three-day festival of Radio Utopia (a self-managed social radio station in Thessaloniki) was devoted to internationalism/anti-nationalism. Fellow anarchists from Turkey and Cyprus had been invited and participated in the events. The text "Mediterranean: the remainder is Cyprus" is the contribution of Andreas P. (then member of the magazine "Traino" in Cyprus) and the discussion that followed. The transcription and editing was done by Sabotaz magazine, which published the text in the autumn of 1994.<sup>1)</sup>
