

Jumping over paywalls

It's all about control of content

BREAKING NEWS!
NEWSPAPERS ARE PLANNING TO PUT ALL
THEIR STORIES ABOUT NEWSPAPERS USING PAYWALLS, BEHIND A PAYWALL.

WHAT'S A NEWSPAPER?

- News outlets trying to capitalise on the internet
- Everyone else threatened by the ease of sharing content

YOU control your browser

- The browser is part of your computer
- As soon as a website's code and data arrives at your browser, you can manipulate it
- Paywalls identify you with cookies and your IP address

Sci-hub

- The scientific publishing industry has insane profits, open-access movement growing
- Sci-hub, unpaywall and other ways to restore open access for everyone
- Changing URL mirrors, currently:
<http://www.sci-hub.hk/>

Libgen

• Same approach, but for scientific books/articles as well as books in general

• <http://libgen.io/>

• <http://custodians.online/>
